THE BOOK SKiNs in Belgium IS FINALLY IN THE PIPELINE.
IF THE PRINTER DOES HIS JOB YOU WILL BE ABLE TO GET YOUR COPY FROM 31 AUGUST 1997 ON.

We've been working almost two years on the research and design for this unique album that brings photo's and stories from Belgian skinheads between 1979 and 1997. Through 204 pages and 280 pictures we tell you the history of the skins in Belgium. The stories are written by skinheads and show what's behind the scene. For decades traditional press and media have been telling the world what they wanted and created a wrong image in many aspects. Now the skins strike back to show the world their way of life.

Chapter 1 "Where it started"
Skinheads from different cities present how they arrived in their own town and try to look back to the past where it all began. There are stories from Brussels, Ghent, Leuven, Antwerpen and Brussels.

Chapter 2 "Clothing"
Where we got our clothes, about our trips to London and about haircuts and tattoos.

Chapter 3 "The split"
This book about political beliefs and activities. Not my favorite subject, but we can't deny what there and if we didn't bring a whole new scene we have to show the facts.

Chapter 4 "Violence"
On the streets, at the football grounds... Some great pictures in real black and white style, a discussion about skinheads in the press. But much more, but an impressive collection of angry young men.

Chapter 5 "A way of life"
An extensive discussion about important elements in a skinhead's life: like, Oh, home "V" birds, boots
"V" boots. This chapter wants to draw a starting point for those new to the call.

Chapter 6 "Gig organising"
About the music organisations involved in putting skidnall gigs on stage in Belgium.

Chapter 7 "Bands"
A small but for from complete view on what the Belgian skinhead scene has produced so far.
(Promote, The Punks, Skin in Skin...)

Chapter 8 "Skins on tour"
In text, just pictures from Belgian skins travelling abroad to taste the blood from all over Europe.

Chapter 9 "Fanzines"
Short reviews, more a collage of what the creative minds of Belgian skinheads have produced for more than ten years.

EDITORIAL

Skinheads love to fight. For many Skins there is nothing better than a good fight on a Friday night. That's just fine, as long as there's a real enemy to fight. But when Skins fight each other something is wrong. Too often there is a hatred between Skins when one group belongs to a 'wrong' group, organisation, country or even town.

Some of us Skinheads try to spread the message of a better civilization where each of our folk has the right to live their own life without being forced into alien cultures, race mixing and drugs. This idea would be accepted by many casuals aswell, but our infighting keeps us from setting an example to them. If we really want to change things, we should work together - not fighting against each other. Fourteen words!

Axel & Jaanus & Visa

Ps: May all your Christmases be white!

A theme of being skinhead: Together we'll fall - together we'll raise!

Note: all opinions mentioned in the bulletin by skinheads from all over the world are not necessarily those of the editors.

• Writes about the encouraging changes in the B&H movement:
"The whole B&H movement has been transformed over the last 6 months. New organizers, new editor, and contributing writers putting out this mag, and mass of activity behind the scenes. The seeds have been sown and the B&H movement at present is better than it has been for a long while..."

... The new faces at gigs, a lot of youngsters, which is what is needed is great to see and as one organiser commented, the amount of Skinhead Girls attending concerts has risen (much to his appreciation).

... New units to join our ranks abroad include two new German divisions, Scandinavian division, Italian div., and smaller ones in Poland, Hungary, Serbia, and even Estonia.

... So much achieved by so few in such a short time, it proves how hard work can prove so beneficial to one and all, what we can possibly achieve overall is absolutely tremendous. Lets make the seeds grow and explode into forest of White Rock Fanatism!"

"NS greetings and welcome to issue 3 of Highlander, The Independent voice of Blood & Honour of Scotland.

... Ten years ago Rudolf Hess was brutally murdered at the hands of British soldiers ... there is no doubt. Then they bulldozed 'Spandau Prison' and removed every trace of the building and proof of their vengeful Talmudic crime. When honest Europeans traveled to Wunsiedel in Germany to pay their last respects to a man, whose only crime was to try and stop war, they were harassed by police and in some cases jailed. Every year for the last 10, ZOG has tried to stop Aryans honouring the memory of Rudolf Hess and every year they have failed, because the memory of Rudolf Hess is carved in our minds. They took away the life of Rudolf Hess - but his memory lives on!

BOHEMIA*History of the Bohemian Skinhead movement*Communism collapses

The first skinheads appeared in the middle of 80ies. Oi/punk band called 'HUBERT MACHÁNE' started to play in 1986 and two years later the first true skin-band, 'ORLIK', was formed. After the communism - November 1989 - the number of skinheads increased rapidly. Many people showed their racial interests and at the begin they were not pressed by the media. 'Orlík' published two LP's between 90 - 91. LP's were sold over 150 000 copies and the band was number one in the official hitlist. But the situation changed. Media wrote stories which had unfavorable influences on the public opinion.

Bohemian bands

The first and the last open air concert, 'Open Air Oi Fest', was carried out in Bzenec in the summer of 91. On the stage was seen the bands called 'Hubrt Macháne', 'Orlík', 'TRI SESTRY', 'MY LAI', 'VALASSKÁ LIGA', 'BRANÍC', 'IPB' and 'KRÁTKÝ PROCES'. This gig is recorded to compilation LP 'SKINSONGS VOL I'. After the open air concert 'Orlík' faced many problems which were consequences of the media pressure. So they took distance from the skinheads and at the end of year they quit playing. (Vocalist Daniel Landa is the popstar in Czech.) In 1992 'Braníc' quit playing and the members were convicted on ground of their lyrics. In those days the large number of skinheads were nationalists but many left the scene because of many reasons. (Official gigs were prohibited, bands stopped to play.) But soon the scene went to more radical direction. New WP bands were formed: 'BULDOK', 'DIKTÁTOR' (Excalibur), 'ZÁST 88', 'MORAVSKÁ JEDNOTA', 'VLAJKA', 'ÚTOK', 'CONFLIKT 88', 'S.A.D.' And also many organizations appeared to the picture: 'BOHEMIA HAMMER SKINS (BHS)', 'VLASTENECKA FRONTÁ (VF)' etc. And a lot of skinzines were published. Scene was closed from the eyes of the ordinary people. Many concerts were organized by the BHS and the well known bands like 'NO REMORSE', 'BATTLE ZONE', 'PEGGIOR AMICO' and 'SQUADRON' have performed in Bohemia. The most popular Czech band is 'Buldok'. The Warrior Records published the Buldok-CD called 'OHEN A LED' (Fire and Ice) at 1994 and it was the first Czech WP CD. Soon came out the compilation CD 'SKINSONGS II', bands like 'Vlajka', 'S.A.D.', 'Útok', 'Krátký Proces' and 'Valasská Liga' plays on that record.

Pressure against skins

Although the things were going well, the scene had many enemies. Anti-fascist organizations like H.O.S.T. which members consists of reporters, actors, politicians, etc. were demanding harder laws against the skinhead activity. The first SHARPs appeared 1994 - 1996 and as usual they are allied with anarchists, hippies and left wing. Today the scene is under strong pressure. All activities is observed by authorities and gigs has been canceled in last few years. Also BHS have been forced to reduce its activity. But in 1996 formed 'CZECH BLOOD AND HONOUR

DIVISION', has been able to organize some gigs ('BRUTAL ATTACK's concert on 7.10.1996 was the biggest happening. Over 800 skinheads were gathered together from all over the Europe. In smaller gigs played bands like 'Buldok', 'EXCALIBUR', 'Vlajka', 'Útok', 'HLAS KRVE', 'CONFLICT 88', 'NORD', 'APARTHEID', 'DIVISION 88', 'REVOLVERS', 'NADORAZ' etc.).

The fight goes on!

Today there is skinheads in every town, about fifty different skinzines are being published and also there is some shops where skinhead clothing is available. In spite of many problems the skinhead scene growing and getting more powerful all the time. The fight goes on!!!!!!!

ENGLAND Gig review: Aryan Fest, Warwickshire, Aug 9 '97

This gig caused great controversy for the system in Britain. Left-wing politicians and the Police tried to find the venue and ban it. They raided the house of "CELTIC WARRIOR's" vocalist Billy and after finding no info on the show and him refusing to tell them, they later charged him under the tyrannical Public Order Act with one charge of possessing an offensive weapon and four alleged offences of distributing racist material. Big Brother is here in Britain make no mistake. But with true British spirit ZOG was beaten and we had our show.

Four Scottish comrades set off early from Glasgow and met up as arranged with other comrades and Skinheads from Leeds and Manchester before heading for the re-direction point. There were many dotted all over the place and this confused the police who frantically searched all over Wales and England for the gig. After some great re-direction point pubs where Skins from far and wide got the chance to met and exchange stories we all headed for the venue.

The Scottish lads from Highlander set up a stall cd's, t-shirts, patches, books and magazines, including their very own issue 3. A great read even if we do say so ourselves. After giving the audience a chance to purchase the merchandise on offer and get the drinks in, the show got under way.

First up were "WHITE LAW", playing only their second ever gig but they were brilliant. Some of the crowd had heard them before, but everyone enjoyed them and were even singing along to choruses once they got the hang of the words. The band themselves seemed to enjoy the show too as they gave an extended set to the delight of the crowd. We hope to see a lot more of this band in the future and get a hold of one of their cracking t-shirts too.

Next up were was a surprise appearance from a baand, new to the independant movement in Britain. "AVALON" got stuck in with some of the songs we all enjoyed before the split like "Our honour is true" and soon got the crowd right on their side.

The show exploded into a frenzy when "CELTIC WARRIOR" took the stage and burst into "Let the Battle Begin". The dance floor was crammed with skinheads revelling it up in the customary fashion, while the whole hall filled with the words of this great tune. Brad did a great job on vocals having had to ditch his instrument to fill in for Billy who was not allowed to leave his home town by the police. More classic "CELTIC WARRIOR" songs followed like "Ole Ole" and "Land of my Fathers" as the heat soared and the beer flowed, infact by the end of night the barrels were empty with only bottled beer left. "CELTIC WARRIOR" yet again proved why they are such a popular band despite being without Billy on vocals. A collection was also made for Billy which raised over £200 which showed great comradeship and generosity.

The final group to take the stage were the mighty "SQUADRON", returning to action after a well deserved break. Opening their set with the brilliantly moving "Fields of Destruction" before keeping everyone dancing with some Bulldog Breed tracks and some of their own classics like "No Surrender" and "A Final Salute". This band really rocks, one of the greatest ever.

This ended a great night which showed the system we will not be beaten and when we set our minds to something we can achieve it. It is surely a lesson for the rest of our activities. The night also showed how united our people are in this struggle, with comrades from all over Britain as well as Germany, France, Switzerland and Belgium, America and Australia present, plus probably more people from elsewhere we never got the chance to meet. It was one of the best shows I have ever been to with the feeling of euphoria at outfoxing the police a major factor after all their efforts to stop us.

Hail Victory!

FINLAND*Gig through eyes of a woman 30 something - ULTIMA THULE in Helsinki, May 31, '97

The fine Swedish nationalists of 'Ultima Thule' had a great concert in Helsinki. About 200 skins participated. There also played 'Germania' of Sweden, but surprisingly not 'Mistreat' of Finland. Too strong opinions? Any how it didn't seem to matter the Mistreat-guys too much: they had fun and stomped the whole night through!. Also in the gig there was a woman in her 30:ies for the 1st time in a skinhead concert. Here's what she told us:

Could this be dangerous?

I was kind of interested when I received an invitation to a skinhead concert. I really didn't know what to expect because I had read only bad things about skinheads in newspapers. When we entered the meeting point the sight was unbelievable: over 100 bald guys with same kind of clothes on everyone. And all they surrounded by policemen. "Could this be dangerous?", came to my mind. Any way, finally our busses left and got followed by all the police vans. I have to admit - I felt great: never been followed by so many police men and going to somewhere which is secret! But in the bus when watching people around a question, which later turned false, came to mind: "Are all these criminals?"

The concert itself turned out to be quite normal club night with special music for people keen on same things. For me the music was quite hard, almost tearing. I have to confess it did not feed my soul! But the boys seemed to enjoy: Dancing floor was packed up with stomping men, raising up their hands for the players. Girls and women were a bit on the side.

A real Pro Man Movement

During the night I had a possibility to talk with many persons. Just lovely people! I admire a lot how they were devoted for being skinheads. And how they did take responsibility about each other. Skins also seem to be a real 'Pro Men Movement'. They are proud to be real men while all bitches, niggers, drug users and losers are packed somewhere to ignorance. Usually men of the '90:ies have to be only soft 'house-hold-men', but here in a skinhead concert men can show their manhood. Also women were real women, proud of them selves. I wasn't the only one to line up at ladies room for making my make-up better.

But as well I was wondering a lot what brings these people together on the 1st hand. Of course there are many positive things, but also some how I got a feeling that many of these young people are facing their life with out any future. And many of them are living with out a father - or even parents. Maybe there hasn't ever been a father who sets up limits what make the surrounding world easier to face. But here the group sets you up very strict limits. Perhaps that's why youngsters feel good and safe to a part of it.

I spent a wonderful night with skinheads in their concert. And if it ever becomes possible again, I certainly will participate again.

HUNGARY*The present Skinhead Movement

The first foreign band played in Hungary in 1990 - that was 'BOOTS AND BRACES' from Germany. Later on, in 1994, the Hungarian skinhead movement cracked to two parts that were fighting against each other: nationalists and national socialists. The nationalists prefer Oi! & ska better than hard skinhead music and they carry only nationalist ideology and don't like nazis. They hate gypsies, jews, arabs, too, but never salute by rising the right hand and shout 'siege hail!'. The other side, the ns-skinhead movement want unity with all European skinheads, with all whites in the world. They have organized many gigs in Hungary since 1994. The first ns-skinhead group is called the 'HUNGARIA SKINS'. They have co-operated with bands like A.D.L. 122, Corona Ferrea, Svastika, Konkvista 88, Excalibur. The other famous and strong movement is the 'N.S.H.', which have organized many gigs, as well. Now-a-days there are about 1000 ns and 1000 nationalist skinheads in Hungary.

Skinhead bands in Hungary

N.S.-bands: ARCHIVUM, VALHALLA and NIMRÓD from Budapest, ÚT & CÉL from Szekszard, JUNKERS 88 from Győr, FELVIDÉKI ÉBREDÉS from Komarno, which is in Slovakia, but band members are Hungarians, and VÉRSZERZŐDÉS from Sopron.

Nationalist bands: ÚJ HAJNAL and EGÉSZSÉGES FEJBŐR from Budapest, TITKOLT ELLENÁLLÁS from Békés and NIMZETI FRONT from Pécs.

OUR HONOUR IS TRUE!

NORWAY

One and half years ago guys from different ns-organizations gathered in clubhouse in our home commune, where we decided to establish an organization called 'FORENTE NATIONALISTER'. It has a goal to unite different ns-, skinhead- etc. -organizations under one united organization. We have almost succeeded with this and the result is that we have become the biggest and greatest N.S. organization in our country. Because of our success we have participated in discussions on TV and radio meanwhile as all the newspapers in the whole country were writing a lot of bullshit about us, for example they call us 'forente terrorister'.

We have received a lot of negative critics from our country's communists, SOS Rasisme, AFA and immigrant friendly parties, but what else you could expect from these groups? But with our own people we have quite a big contact net across Europe and USA. From Germany we received a request to build up an organization similar to ours, because of our success. This is, we think, very positive and proves among other things that we are being taken seriously.

Meanwhile our organization stands neutral regarding the conflict that is in progress in Europe. It's unbelievable that we who have the same political beliefs and interests should quarrel and fight with each other when we should stand unite in the struggle against the ZOG and communists, etc. It's time to forget the past and begin a new chapter. 14/88!

RUSSIA

In Russia we have many things going in the fast growing skinhead scene. There are at least 8 skinhead bands: 'SCHTRUM', RUSSIAN GHETTO', 'KOLOVRAT', 'RADEGASST' from Moscow, 'TOTENKOPF' from St. Petersburg, 'ULTRA' and 'STS' from Ivanovo, 'TNKF' from Jaroslavl.

In May '97 we had a great big demonstration against aliens organized by nationalists and skinheads in St. Petersburg. About 200 skinheads marched on the main street of Nevski demanding aliens out of Russia. Skins shout: "Hail Russia!", "Hail Russian Guns!" Also some blacks got lots of problems in the demonstration.

In September we enjoyed a good gig in Moscow with most bands mentioned above. Some 300 skins participated and lived with Russian songs that were telling for instance about 'snow fall', 'free my country' etc. Also many Ian Stuart's songs were played, as always. In the gig we had no problems at all. In fact the security was ensured together by skins and police.

The next gig will take place in St. Petersburg on 6th of December with at least 'TOTENKOPF' and a party meeting

Schtrum giving a gig at Fort Ross Club (Moscow Skin Club) on 5th April '97

In generally everything in our skinhead scene is fine. Maybe the worst things are posers, who look like skins, but don't know anything. There guys are a new thing in the Moscow scene, that fortunately has almost 1000 serious skins. We have many contacts and good friendship for instance with German, Hungarian and Polish skins, but because of some old problems we have hardly any contacts with for example Finnish skins, which is sad.

SERBIA*The Serbian Skinhead history

First Serbian skinheads were born in the early 80's mostly in the cities like Novi Sad and Belgrade. The early Serbian skinheads weren't involved much in the politics - in fact I would say that they didn't know the "P" of the politics. They were the real Oi! - skinheads interested in beer, fighting and the war on the terraces (if you get what I mean).

The music Scene

The first Serbian skinhead band (or at least one of the first ones) was 'TWO MINUTA MRZNJE' (Two Minutes of Hate). They recorded only the EP in 1983 And a few demos. That was a pure Oi! Antisocial band. In the mid 80's, exactly in 1986 'RITAM NEREDA' (Rhythm of Disorder) appeared. It was the most famous Serbian skin band which went through many phases: from Oi! Street punk band to the right oriented band, even with the NS fragments! They have 5 albums, one live. The last one is pretty metal influenced. In the late 80's many more bands started gigs all over Serbia. The bands like 'UZBUNA' (Alert), 'POBUNA' (Rebellion), 'KLASNI PROBLEM' (Class Problem), 'VRISAK GENERACIJE' (The Scream of the Generation), 'KURSUS' and 'SAHT', which is the only band that still plays around. All these bands were Oi! firm bands.

The War

When the war started in former Yugoslavia, many economic and social problems appeared. That's why and therefore the skinhead scene in Serbia started to rise right then. The millions were awoken by the call of race and nation against the Judaic enemies of the white people - just kidding, I wish it was like that, but unfortunately it wasn't. Although the war time brought the awakening of the nationalist thoughts in Serbia. After the beginning of the 90's and the start of the war the number of the skinheads is constantly increasing. Many kids started to shave their heads and wear Dr.Martens. Watching it from the one point of view the number of the skinheads grew, but from the other point, the share of the kids as skinheads also grew. The situation is the same today. The kids are skinheads just for fashion, in fact this is one of the big problems of Serbian skinheads today.

Some of the bands

In the early 90's a band from Belgrade called 'ZIVOTINJE' (Animals) hit the stage. It was a strong nationalist band, but with some NS thoughts. They also had one 'SKREWDRIVER' cover - Smash the IRA 'ZIVOTINJE' was joined by more popular bands like 'DIREKTORI' (Directors) and GENERACIJA BEL BBUDUCNOSTI - G.B.B.' (Generation of the Future). They reached the charts and even the TOP 10 on TV. They were admired by many people (not only skinheads) - especially 'Direktori' and G.B.B.. Although they all have nationalist and even racist lyrics, in the past few years they were rejected by NS skinheads for being poseurs and money makers. Direktori was even linked with the Soros fond - Jewish international fund. The other two bands simply changed their styles.

All in all scene all over Serbia is getting better and stronger and as you know - quantity makes quality. In the end best white regards to you all skinheads who will hopefully read this. 88!

SPAIN

Spanish skin bands of today (continued from ISB 1...)

It seems like now-a-days there are popping out new skinhead-bands every day. Interesting bands into Oi! / steet punk are, for instance 'ZAKARRAK' (now separated), 'SUBURBAN REBELS', 'ISKAN BILA', 'ALTA TENSIÓN' and many others.

Ruin Bois live in Buen, 1995

In Galiza the first skinhead-band was formed in 1994: 'RUIN BOIS'. Some of it's members had played in some other bands, but nothing serious had come out. They published not long ago their first full length CD 'Cempre en Galiza' on a new Belgian label 'PURE INPACT', after a demo and a couple of apparitions on international street punk compilation LP's. Nevertheless, as they are a skinhead outfit and don't support any political stand, many gig organizers prefer to ignore them and put 'safer' punk outfits. No surprising news... They are probably the most international Oi! band around here, though, having played in Belgium and Portugal.

SEMPRE EN GALIZA

The Ruin Bois hail from Vigo in northwestern Spain, just north of Portugal. The region they live in, Galiza or Galicia, inspired them for the CD's title, which translated in English means "Forever in Galicia". Their local language has a lot of resemblances to Portuguese obviously, not surprising if you keep in mind that the spanish central government is at a good 1,200 km from Vigo, in Madrid.

They started out in the summer of 1994 and have maintained the original line-up until now. That means José Luis on vocals, Mikel on guitar, Piri on bass and Sonia on drums. Their music is in the finest english Oi - streetpunk tradition, with hard aggressive music and strong vocals, not unlike Condemned 84 from England.

At the end of '95 - early '96, they put out an excellent, professionally produced and packaged demo on the spanish Plastic Disc label, which so far sold a stunning 750 copies worldwide, which is probably the highest number of demos ever sold by an Oi band. It got them worldwide recognition and several write-ups in fanzines followed.

Pure Impact is proud to present you their first CD release, which includes 13 tracks, 2 of which are covers. "Dodot no ha muerto" is originally from Barcelona's superstar Oi band Decibelios and "Zipaioak" of an old basque punk outfit called Punetazo Oi.

This album comes as a picture CD with an 8-page colour booklet with lyrics to all songs, explanations to the songs in English, lots of photos and a transparent tray.

MY FAVORITE SKINHEAD MUSIC FROM CANADA

What's your favorite skinhead music? Why? Write us and to everyone...

ODINS LAW: Battle Legions of Wotan

I received a CD from the Netherlands. It included songs from a Canadian band called Odins Law. The music pack turned out to be excellent... new & aggressive!

Already the cd's first song 'To death we ride' powerful beginning and vocalist's voice gives a feeling that the cd's has to be great. Especially I enjoyed words of many songs, but 'Our time will come', 'Eric Banks lives on' and 'NHS - hail victory!' were just great.

Sounds like there has been a lot of good work with the CD. Also I can hear it's been influenced by 'BOUND FOR GLORY', but I think it's only good. Heavy guitar sounds, powerful singing voice and good words makes the CD best what I have lately listened. A great CD from Canadian Hammerskins - worth to buy!
